

ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

The official logo and mark are the intellectual property of Business Professionals of America, Inc. Only officially recognized state associations, chapters, members and affiliates should be able to identify themselves as Business Professionals of America or BPA through usage of the logo and/or mark. Chartered state associations and local BPA chapters, as well as members in good standing with the organization, are permitted to use the trademarked official logo, mark and name on printed materials and digital media such as websites, social media platforms and electronic correspondences.

The BPA mark or logo may not be used on any commercial product or publication that directly or implicitly conveys that the content is authorized or associated with the organization, without the express written permission of the National Association. Members are encouraged to include the logo and/or mark to identify that they are members of Business Professionals of America. Use of the official logo and/or mark is a privilege, not a right.

The National Association may authorize external organizations, partners and sponsors to use the official logo and/or mark on promotional materials; however, no other use of the official logo or mark is permitted without the express written permission of the National Association. In order to use the BPA logo, mark and/or name of the organization on promotional items, such as clothing, accessories or other merchandise, prior permission must be obtained from the National Association.

The Business Professionals of America official logo and mark are fully protected under the latest intellectual property rights laws.

Adopted April 2, 2019, Business Professionals of America Board of Trustees